The Australia Pavilion offers a one-of-a-kind immersive experience, showcasing Australia's First Nations heritage, diverse landscapes, and deep connection to nature.

Visitors will embark on a multisensory journey following the sun across Australia, encountering native wildlife, vast night skies, and breathtaking ocean landscapes. This experience highlights First Nations wisdom, passed down for tens of thousands of years, offering insights into sustainability and the future.

Australia envisions a future where connection and care for the environment are at the heart of a thriving society. The pavilion will invite visitors to reflect on how ancient traditions and modern innovation can come together to protect our planet for generations to come.

The pavilion features two distinct precincts, showcasing Australia's culture, business, and innovation to different audiences.

“Visitors to our pavilion will experience Australia like never before. Through a bushwalk across our land, sky, and sea, we will share how First Nations people have cared for the environment for tens of thousands of years - wisdom that continues to shape our future. When we think of a future society we remember to learn from our past.”

Commissioner General for Australia, Nancy Gordon
